

Hospital Build Magazine Submission Guidelines

The Hospital Build magazine is entirely dedicated to the non-clinical side of the healthcare industry. The magazines content includes all aspects of:

- Investing
- Planning
- Designing
- Building
- Operating
- Managing
- Refurbishing

Format

- All articles should be submitted as a Word document, using minimum formatting
- Articles should be between 1000 and 1600 words in length, although a maximum of 2000 can be considered under certain circumstances.
- Make sure to include your full name, title, company, city and country for the author byline. We also need your full mailing address and phone number in order to send you a copy when the magazine is published.
- Ensure your article has a title and preferably also subtitles

Images & figures

- The use of figures is encouraged. These must be sent as individual jpeg files with quality of at least 300dpi. Please make sure that these are clearly referenced in the text with separate legends.
- Any images you want to include must be sent as separate 300dpi jpps. Make sure you have copyright for these images. Please let us know whom the copyright belongs to so we can mark the images. Additional images are sourced by us from www.shutterstock.com

Guidelines

- Articles must be original works containing up-to-date clinical information on a particular topic.
- Simultaneous submissions are considered
- A brief cover letter stating your reasons for submission is preferred, but not requisite.
- Authors are strongly advised to query the editor prior to submission to ensure that your proposed topic is appropriate for the magazine and has not been reserved for another writer.
- Submitted articles should include references wherever possible, particularly to any data included.

Submission Process

- We prefer that you submit your article by email directly to the editor
- Articles can also be submitted by upload via our website www.lifesciencesmagazines.com
